We guarantee our products are of the highest quality at a competitive price and delivered to you in a timely manner.

- Cast Bronze & Aluminium

to create that beautiful look, our plaques are handmade using the traditional method of sand casting and molten metal. With the latest in technological advancements we have added Picture Perfect to our casting portfolio, enabling photographic images to be cast in detail. Various colours are available, for backgrounds and details. All are finished with a protective baked enamel coating.

- Stainless and Brass

are crafted from high grade material using highly specialised engraving techniques. This allows for some very creative designs.

In recent times the increasing trend towards cremation and scattering of ashes has left a void for many families with no memorialisation site. Memorialisation is an important process that allows family and friends a place to visit and reflect on memories of the loved one at important times. Churches have always been a traditional and ideal location for a memorial. Recently churches have installed Memorial Walls as a service to parishioners, which offer families the opportunity to mark a loved one's passing in a lasting, relevant and personal way.

A memorial on church grounds is another facet of community care and service to parishioners that can be provided by the church. Once memorials are erected on church grounds they are administered and maintained by the church, who sets guidelines to ensure the beauty and sanctity of the monument is protected. Parishioners are able to stroll around the church grounds visiting the memorials of family and friends at a communal place of worship.

A1 Plaques Group is made up of several companies that have combined to service clients Australia wide. We are entirely Australian owned and operated and our plaques are produced right here in Australia by Australians, for Australians. Every dollar spent with A1 Plaques Group will stay in Australia.

“Forgot to order a plaque for that special opening?”

It's never too late. A1 Plaques Group can send you a temporary plaque within two days if necessary. It's just another way that we can help you by going that one step further.
